

1003. b. 9
3

PETITION

TO THE

K. Broughton

KING

TO HASTEN ALLOW

ance for Ebrew

INSTITUTION

of Ebreuues.

/

YOVR Majestie, gracious King, being moved the last winter by a letter, for allowance to open the New Testament in Ebrew by Thalmudiques, to satisfy Iewes desire, and Turkes expe ctation, sayd readily, as Syr Th. Overbu ry told, you would give 500. poundes annuitie that way: that I leaft D. Bilson and your Bishops all. Because my age fleeth, I humbly request so much sone to be performed: and I will bestow eve ry sicke upon Moses tabernacle: and af ter the first payment, never medle with your BB. Yf Bancroft can kepe him self so silent, as doth D. Bilson; who is a thousand times of oftener reading in E brew and Grek then he. But yf Bane craft his wit, as Phaeton, cannot rule his high scat, your highnes cannot be of fended, yf the thunderbolt of a pen strik all his wittes out of his brain. I shew ed in my former Ebrew bookes quietnes for all christians: and so I would goe forwards; but yf Banecroft joyne with Iewes, I will sone tel your LL. of him: & yet go forward with Ebrewes, to satiffy, as hitherto the best learned in the world, & to my power, increase the honour of your Kingdome, to the glory of God, & blessing of your familie.

Your Majesties most humble subject

Hugh Broughton

ed in my former Brown Book acquaintances for all Christians: and so I would go forward; but I cannot for new fewer I will follow you I of him: yet go forward with a few to family, as much as best learned in the world, to my power, and to the honour of your Kingdom, to the glory of God, & blessing of your family.

Your Majesty's most humble subject

Hughroughton

TO
THE RIGHT
HONORABLE
THE LORDS OF HIS MAIESTIES

most honorable privy

Councell.

I have set forth (Right Honorable) sundry bookes, institutions for lewes in our Christianity. Two, of Epistles, printed afore A.
D. 1599. and the one in seaven languages.
The other Arch. VVh. caused to be translated. The matter of them I need not to tell.
An other work is but part Ebrew: in a commentary vpon Ecclesiastes: & that is translated so much as in English might be. An other ther is joyned in argument: that Salomons family ended in the Kinges: and thence Nathans was afflicted: even unto the afflicting of our Lord: and of Christians 300 yeares.

That, I have translated into Greeke: and into Latin for Europe. And I think that no Ro-mist, or Law of England wil blame any position of it. An other is altogether against the Iewes, for disturbing the holy story wilfully; that the redēption tyme should not appeare.
That work needed not to be translated for England: because I opened every position of it to England afore. All these bookes I made for the honor of the King: that all Iewes and Gentiles bettered by them, should pray for the King and the Kinges children. And them I commend to your Lordshipes care, to be regarded according to the sage honour of his Majesties governement.

Your Lordships most humble:

thier

Hugh Broughton.

1003. b. 9
4

A Defence of the

Booke entitled A Cōcent of Scripture, for amendment of former Athe- an most grosse, and Iudaique errours, which our translations and notes had :

Against the libel, scoffing a Scottish mist :
and slaundering that the Iewes Epistle sent from Byzantian Rome, was a forged worke, and not in deed sent thence.

By HUGH BROUGHTON. K

